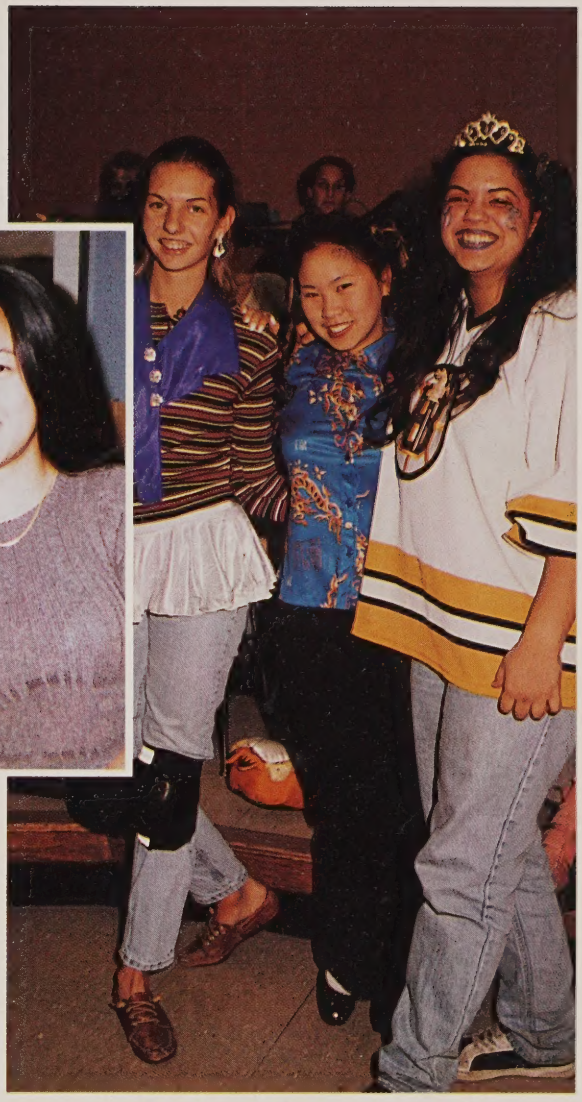
TO REMEMBER .....



June 9, 1996 will see three hundred fifteen seniors graduating as the class of 1996. For many of us looking back on our four years at Waltham High it seems these were the days to learn, laugh, but most importantly to develop as people. Freshman year enthusiasm and innocence would later give way to senior year maturity and confidence. These were the days to grow academically, artistically, athletically, and musically.

Now is the time to look ahead to the future, to the opportunities that await us both in college and the work force. The mark that Waltham High has left on us, through dedicated teachers and challenging programs, will be present in all that we do. For now though, these are the days to seize the future and to experience all we can.

Ms. Rosemary Vinson

To be called a leader conjures up a number of different associations. Some formal definitions are: "one who leads others along a way; one in charge or in command of others; a head of a political party or organization; one who has an influential voice."

Yet, underlying all the definitions I believe that there are three essential qualities of a leader. The first is responsibility, a commitment to a purpose or mission, a dedication to gain the trust of others and lead them in the process of completing a task. The second quality is ambition, a drive to identify a goal and to strive to make it a reality not only for personal satisfaction but for the benefit of others as well. Th third quality is pride, a passionate desire to do one's best in every undertaking.

The students before you on stage who are about to be inducted possess the qualities of leadership have identified. In the classroom, on the athletic field, in the creative arts, and in student organizations and clubs, these students have demonstrated responsibility, ambition, and pride. They are not complacent with the status quo. They love a good challenge. They ask questions. They seize the initiative to undertake a task and see it through to completion. They enjoy getting other students excited about a project whether in the classroom, in an organization, in a sport, or at work.

They are the dreamers, the thinkers and doers of our class. To paraphrase the memorable words o George Bernard Shaw, we do not see things and say why? We dream things that never were, and say, why not?

Dedications

Mrs. Anna Curry

Each year the seniors recognize those individuals who have touched the lives of many of the students in the graduating class. This year, we would like to acknowledge a warm and caring woman who has brightened the days of many students. Her name is Mrs. Anna Curry, our Senior House secretary.

Mrs. Curry started with the Waltham Schoool System as a student herself, attending Fitch and South Middle before graduating from Waltham High. She continued her education at Boston College, Boston Universtiy, and later graduated from Aquinas College. Mrs. Curry and her husband raised two daughters who also graduated from Waltham High School.

As a secretary, Mrs. Curry is energetic, organized, and efficient. She works well under pressure in a sometimes chaotic environment. As a person, Mrs. Curry is admired and respected by students, parents and teachers alike. Her warm and friendly smile conveys her openness as well as her willingness to assist students in any way she can. She's been more than a secretary to us; she's been a friend, an advisor when asked for advice, and a person who has been unfailingly kind and patient.

As our senior year draws to a close, the class of 1996 would like to thank Mrs. Anna Curry for her years of caring and for being there for us when we needed her most.

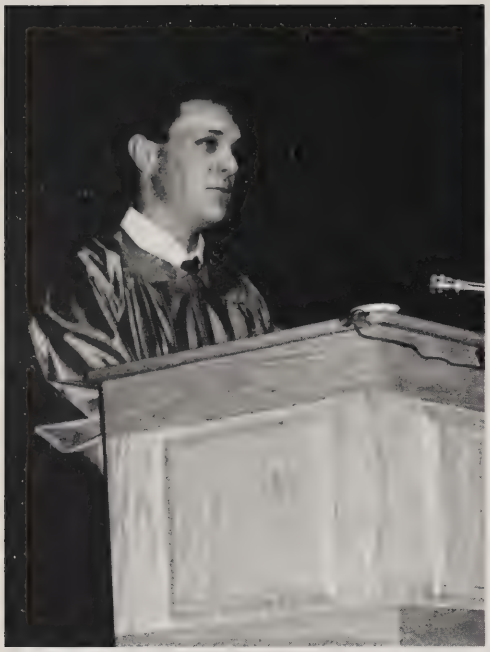
Mirror



Mrs. Marcia Delaney

For all the students at Waltham Vocational High School, each day of this year has been made a little brighter by the warmth and generosity of one woman.

The eldest of six children born to Barbara and James Devoe of Waltham, she attended Waltham High where she participated as member of the Marching Band. There is a story that once when she was marching in the band she lost her boot in the mud, but being who she is, she kept marching so she would not loose a beat. This incident sums up the character of this very special lady.

She would later marry Michael Delaney, a Carpentry teacher at the Vocational High School. She is the mother of two daughters, Jennifer and Stacy and one son Jeffrey, who is a member of the class of 1996.

When the students come in late for school she always has a beautiful big smile on her face, which allows us to start our day in the right state of mind. She never criticizes us but only offers words of advice and encouragement.

Mother, counselor, diplomat, nurse and numerous other titles can describe this lady. Well, who is this wonderful lady? We at the vocational all know who she is. The Waltham Vocational High School Class of 1996 would like to dedicate our yearbook to the best secretery and most of all as a friend to all of the students and staff of our school, Mrs. Marcia Delaney .

Dedications

In Memory of :
Mr. Jack MacDonald

This modern vaulted church,
his triple-striped coffin:
his isn't the place for you.
Nor are any of us comfortable with your silence.
How can we match the Jack in our minds with this Jack, this silence,
his hole in us, cold and hard as stone?
This is how we see you, still:
triumphant (or not) on the green-carpeted golf course, joking, laughing — pool-side, encouragement embodied, filling the cracks in our self-confidence with your optimistic mortar —
your jests and wisecracks masking absolute goodness,
hinting at ill-will that we all knew was never there.
We know how to be
wife, daughters, grandchildren, students, friends, loved indiscriminately —
but empty mourners? No.
We know how to laugh with you.
We don't know how to cry for you,
though we're finding it comes effortlessly.
We don't know how to fill the hollow you've created by leaving.
Mourning is selfish:
it's not for you that we grieve, but for us,
the ones who have to live with your absence.
Jack, you are sorely missed.

gone

The 1995-96 school year was one of the most successful yet for Waltham High School athletics. Teams such as swimming, girls' soccer, and girls' basketball placed first in the Greater Boston League, while many other teams were in contention for the league title. There were many individual stand-outs as well. In addition, many of our athletes intend to pursue athletics in college.

However, the characteristic most prominent in Waltham High School sports teams is that of sportsmanship. Whether a team was in first place or last, it still displayed the qualities of pride, respect and good conduct both on and off the field. The players and coaches of WHS helped to create a good reputation that will uphold the name of Waltham High School for years to come.

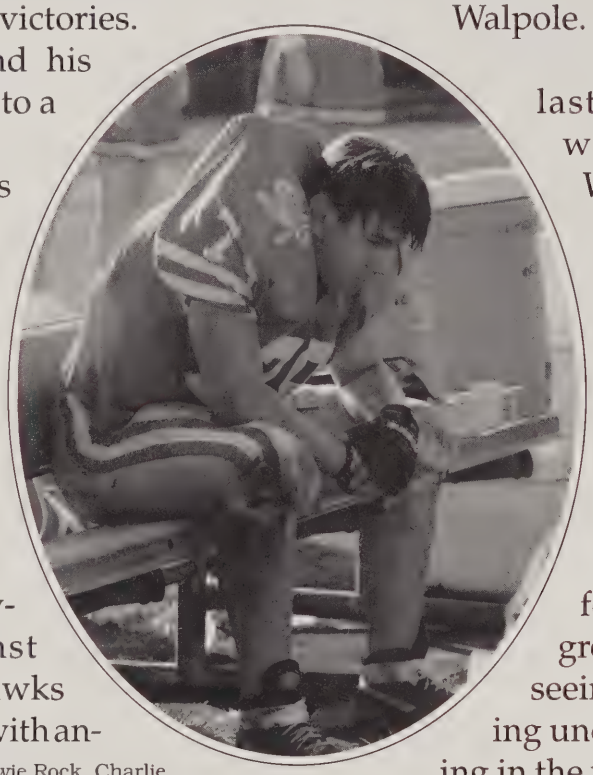
rushing to score

The 1995 Football season featured heart-breaking losses as well as come from behind victories. Coach Keohane and his staff led the Hawks to a 7-3 record.

The team was paced by senior captains Royston English, Charlie Hogan, Jeff Delaney and Will Schoeck. They entered the season with high expectations and on opening day won a pivotal game against Weymouth. The Hawks finished the season with another come from behind victory over Division 2B Super Bowl champs, Walpole.



This year was the last year Waltham would play Weymouth and Walpole which made the wins even sweeter. The senior class worked extremely hard to provide the school and the city with the type of football they have grown accustomed to seeing. With promising under classmen waiting in the wings, next season is expected to be just as exciting.

for the boys

With the 1994 season graduating twelve seniors, the 1995 football cheerleaders were once again forced to go through a rebuilding year. For the first time in many years, try-outs were open to freshmen. Many freshmen had gained experience through the Pop Warner program and were eager to get started in high school. The team was led by Captain Kate Sullivan, with senior leadership contributed from Ericka Hagenaars and Diane Perkins. The three seniors, one junior, three sophomores and nine freshmen were not expected to do anything extraordinary.

However, summer camp at Emmanuel College showed a team that was willing to work and came away with Superior trophies, as well as many Superior and Excellent ribbons. With the help of Coach Denise Lelievre, the season was a time for pulling together. It was with determination and commitment to the team that the football cheerleaders went to the Shepard Hill Invitational Competition where they placed a solid first.

For a team that initially was inexperienced, the cheerleaders proved they had will and determination, surpassing even their own expectations. The surprising finish at competition, along with the victory for the football team on Thanksgiving Day, closed out a great season for the football cheerleaders.

swing of things

This year the award winning Marching Band made it through another great year. Under the direction of Stephen Barbas, drum majors Krisitin Whalen and Esina Belliveau, and seniors Andy LeBlanc, Daniel Nixon, and David Wade, the band worked hard to create a wonderful half time show. Members worked closely together to perfect their skills necessary for a good season. Results of combined efforts included the creation of wonderful musicians and great friends. Due to a large group of new members, competition had to be put off this year. However, in the future they will be a great challenge to beat!

boy's playing the

This year's Waltham High Boys' Soccer team was the school's best in fourteen years, finishing the regular season in second place. Its success was also evident in the state tourney.

Before reaching the North Regional Quarterfinals, the Hawks beat Woburn 2-0 in first round play. It was a memorable performance. The underdogs beat the home team thanks to a header by junior Vilner St. Jean and a spectacular goal by Erik Doucette. The Quarterfinals saw the Hawks confront league rival Somerville. Waltham held a 2-1 lead before Somerville scored three unanswered goals. Waltham lost a close decision, 4-3.

First year coach Peter Marini was a factor in his team's success. He had confidence in all his players, including captains Fabio Mariano, Chris Postizzi, and the team's most valuable player, Wilder Chilin.

The captains, together with goalkeeper Antonio Calderon, defensemen Elder Escobar, Peter Strazullo, and Eric Lobo, midfielder Ed Fragale, and striker Elie Solomon provided leadership as seniors. The team promises to be strong in future years.

Clearly, the Waltham High Boys' Soccer team has had a fantastic year. From being third from last in the league halfway through the season, the players worked hard to ultimately become associated with the best teams in the state.

point of attack

For the second consecutive year, the Waltham High Lady Hawks soccer team has won the title of Greater Boston League Champions. 1995 also marked the first time in over a decade the Hawks proceeded to second round tournament play. The Hawks beat Methuen before losing to a powerful Winchester team.

The Lady Hawks, led by Coach John Maguire and co-captains Kristin Philpott and Maryellen O'Connor, received key contributions from its large senior group. Maryellen was one of the GBL's leading scorers, and Paphay Chouangpraseuth also helped the Hawks' scoring efforts. Halfbacks Danene Parella, Katie Ryan, Deanna Coleman, and Oubonrath Nithnalay controlled the midfield, while the defense was paced by Kristin Philpott, Patty Connors, and Kelly Swanson. In goal, senior Maribeth Boudreau broke several school goalkeeping records.

With a strong group of underclassmen coming up, the 1996 Girls' Soccer team is sure to be just as successful.

volley

bump and dive

Despite losing several players to graduation, the 1995 volleyball team was able to fill in those slots and have a successful season.

Also, for the first time the team became coed when two sophomore boys joined the team. Despite the comments made by peers, Matthew Collette and Peter Griffin tried out, made the team and stuck with it.

The Hawks, led by coach Laraine Bogosian and senior co-captains Jill Casella and Tina Pugliese, played with hard work and determination. The defense was sparked by the play of senior Jill Casella with good efforts by seniors Corinna Parkhurst, Rejane Smidt and Stacey Campbell. Up at the net, blocking was paced by seniors Alyssa DiMauro and Allyson DiGregory. Seniors Tina Pugliese and Jill Casella contributed all around strong play with their consistent serving, strong setting and their readiness to dive for loose balls.

Perhaps the greatest accomplishment as a team was beating Boston Latin in two straight games. Boston Latin had been undefeated against Waltham for a number of years. Teamwork can accomplish anything.

The season ended with a record of 6-6 in the GBL and 7-12 overall. Several varsity players are returning next year and the team is looking forward to a successful 1996 season.

up to par

The 1995 golf team enjoyed its fair share of success this year. The team finished with a 4-4-2 record that qualified them for the state tournament for yet another year.

The team was led by co-captains Tim Mahoney and Sean Brophy and head coach Len Sorin, and received key contributions from seniors Mark Gogan and Chris Stolowski. Many underclassmen were also key factors this season. Juniors Adam Campana and Mark St. Marie as well as sophomore Stephen Douglas and freshman Jason Doyle all had outstanding years.

As well as playing in the state tournament, the golf team competed in the Greater Boston League Tournament and the Sullivan Tournament. Waltham's representatives for both tournaments were Sean Brophy, Tim Mahoney and Adam Campana. In the GBL Tournament, Brophy and Campana finished in a tie for fifth, and finished first overall in team play. At the Sullivan Tournament, Brophy finished third, with Campana and Mahoney having strong rounds as well.

field hockey

toughen up

Waltham High started its first Field Hockey program in twenty years this fall. The team was coached by Denise Nugent, who was an assistant coach for Watertown's power house program. Everyone entered the season a little hesitant, but willing to give it their best.

Field Hockey sparked an interest in thirty girls including senior Co-captains Julie Mullin and Sandy Ehwa. Together the girls managed to form a team. They did not play in the Greater Boston League this year because they were a first year program. The Girls got some experience by playing stronger teams such as Lexington, Watertown, and Peabody.

When asked about the most memorable game of the season, it is always the same response - Malden. Malden was Waltham's first varsity victory. Malden was a developed program and Waltham stepped up to the game. Freshman Jill Annunciata sparked the team with a great performance in the net. The defense was kept together by juniors Lisa Connors and Barbara-Rae St. Cyr. The assists from the defense to the front line were provided by mid-fielders freshman Tracey Rautenberg, sophomore Caitlin Scott-Deleskey, and senior Sandy Ehwa. The front line took the ball to the net and was led by junior Sarah Hatch and senior Julie Mullin. This victory was by far the team's greatest accomplishment.

The hawks ended their season with an impressive seven and nine record. In the fall of 1996 the girls will enter the season as a Greater Boston League Varsity Team. After seeing them in their first year as a program, there is no doubt that they will make a large impact in the future.

rough terrain

Most teams define their seasons as winning or losing. The boys' cross-country season is more aptly labeled rebuilding. With only two returning members from previous years, the teams first objective was to become competitive, and the second was to win.

With leadership from seniors Jesse Jaramillo and captain Michael Bartley and the development of sophomore B.J. Vallely into one of the league's top runners, the first goal was readily achieved. The second one was also reached, in a victory over Arlington, and almost repeated in a one-point loss to Everett in a meet marred by injuries and cheating. While boys' cross-country was far from a powerful team, it successfully built a strong base of freshmen and sophomores to develop a winning team in the future.

going the distance

This year's girls' cross country team had an excellent season. With Coach Kent Hales and senior co-captains Katie LeClair and Julie Aucoin to lead the team, they finished fourth place overall in the Greater Boston League. The team also consisted of seniors Sarah Dacey, Nicole Pavone and several underclassmen.

Although the whole team ran very well, several runners went on to achieve success individually. Both captains were named GBL All-Stars. Katie, who remained undefeated in the GBL for the second straight year, placed second in the State Class A Division I Cross Country Meet. This qualified her to move on to the Division I All-State Meet in which she placed tenth. The seniors leave the team with many memories and a wish of good luck for next year's team.

take the plunge

The Waltham High Co-ed swimming and diving team had another banner season topping the Greater Boston League for the fourth year in a row. This graduating class has been a winning combination for all of its four years, and was actually referred to as a "sports dynasty." There were some stressful meets this season against Malden, Concord-Carlisle, and Peabody, but the Hawks managed to pull through.

Senior tri-captains Sean Lord, Geoff Scott, and Deanna Coleman proved to be motivating team leaders as well as vital to the team's success in the pool. Scott Rogers, Erin Connearney, and Jon Jutstrom were the team's 500 specialists and their endurance won many a close race. Rebecca Dufromont was continually improving and qualified for sectionals in the breaststroke. Ed Williams turned in a key performance in the Peabody meet, as did first year diver Marcus Colon.

Overall the 9-1 season was wonderful and can be attributed to the team's coaching, talent, and depth. The year ended on a somber note with the death of the team's beloved long time official Jack MacDonald, who will be sorely missed.

shoot for two

Things did not look great before the season began. While juniors Russell Bonilla and Patrick Pelissier were returning starters from last year's team, the only other player with varsity experience was senior captain Andrew Gullotti. This team was picked to finish near the bottom of the G.B.L. Yet Bonilla dominated inside, Gullotti provided leadership and shooting, and Pelissier developed into one of the top players in the league. With junior Rick Burke and senior Louis Colon having strong defensive impacts, Waltham emerged to challenge the elite in the league. Important contributions from seniors Steve Connaughton, Eric Gollinger, Mike Bartley and Matt Peterson, as well as junior Dan Tortola, and sophomore William Morales, propelled Waltham to one of its best starts ever. A late-season slump slowed the team, which still easily finished 11-9 before losing to Methuen in the state tournament.

some helping hands

The 1995-1996 Basketball cheerleading team, coached by Denise LeLievre, had a memorable and rewarding season. Their spirit and enthusiasm was able not only to encourage the boys' basketball team, but to rouse the stands into vocal support as well. This year, the team also put forth a strong showing at a competition in Somerville, placing fifth overall.

Senior tri-captains Corrine Connor, Tara Ripley, and Randi Dalicandro brought the team together and led it with confidence. Seniors Margery Samaria, Jessica D'Angio, and Kelly Swanson gave 100% and their dedication continues to serve as an example to underclassmen.

The seniors wish to thank the team for the memories made and wish the best of luck to next year's squad.

girls' b

stealing the show

The 1995-96 Lady Hawks basketball team, under the direction of Coach Bob Connors, had its most successful season ever. This year the girls' team captured its first-ever Greater Boston League title en route to an appearance in the quarterfinals of the state tournament. The Hawks finished with a 16-4 overall record.

The team was led by senior co-captains Sandy Ehwa and Katie Ryan. Seniors Kristin Philpott and Paphay Chouangpraseuth played tough defense, while seniors Patty Connors and Maryellen O'Connor provided an offensive spark. The team was also aided by many underclassmen, and most notably by junior point guard Noel Cunningham.

The most unique feature of this team was its lack of a single star. Each game a different girl would step up her game to carry the team through. Everyone had their moment in the spotlight. It is this quality that will keep the team in the hearts and minds of its players. They were the little team that did...

The 1995-1996 wrestling team, under the coaching of Ted Neill, had a strong season. The team's two senior Co-Captains, Mike Collins and Bill Foster, as well as the other two senior wrestlers, Phil Saulnier and John Umina, helped lead the team to a strong 4th place finish in the Dual County league.

Although Mike Collins had to sit out much of the season with a bad shoulder injury, his few performances were indeed remarkable. Such included a 6 second pin, the fastest in Waltham wrestling history. Foster injured himself at the beginning of the season as well, yet recovered quickly enough to help rally the team to victory. Junior Jason Barnes was also a key player on the team. His spectacular performance of capturing first in the State tournament made him one of the wrestling team's most valuable players. With the large number of first and second year wrestlers, the coaching of Ted Neill, Ryan Robichaud, and Robert Kuzmicke will ensure that the team will grow into a powerful force.

The Waltham High School ski team continued its tradition of determination and success. The girls' team was especially successful and was a dominant force in the league. The team had lost a lot of powerful seniors to graduation, but the underclassmen were able to pick up the slack with their strong performances, managing to place second in the league and making the state meet. Co-captains Jenn Biggins and Lisa Felton had a terrific season, along with Sarah Michelson and Laura Auld.

The boys team was led by co-captains Eric Marshall and Joe Mulone. Valuable contributions were made by Matt McCue, Howie Rock, and Jim Biggins. They had a successful year finishing fourth in the league and just missed qualifying for the state meet.

Despite having only four seniors and being forced to go through another rebuilding year, the 1995-1996 Hockey team managed to put together a solid season. The team missed qualifying for the state tournament even though they tripled the number of wins from last year. Their final record was 9-11.

The team was led by senior tri-captain Tim Mahoney and junior tri-captains Brian Losier and Adam Campana. Senior Mark Gogan was also a strong leader for the team. Losier was a force in goal for the Hawks, while seniors Jeff Delaney and Bill Hines were strong up front. The Hawks were a young team this year, and are sure to develop in the years to come.

The 1995-1996 hockey cheerleaders put in another year of hard work and dedication. Despite the cold and cramped conditions, the girls managed to give the boys the support they deserved. Although this year's hockey team had a rough time, the girls were able to keep their spirits high.

boys' indoor track

fully trained

The 1995-96 boys' Indoor Track Team had a great year. Despite starting off slow by losing the first four out of five meets and tying one, the team pulled together to win the last three meets. Also, many individual members of the track team had excellent seasons and came to dominate the league.

Senior Royston English had an outstanding year in the 50 yard dash, and qualified for the All-State meet. Further, English teamed up with Rich Sutherland and Will Schoeck to win the State Class A shot put relay. Schoeck also had a record-breaking year going undefeated in dual meets before winning 8 out of 11 state meets and becoming the New England shot put champion. Senior Joe Mazzola proved to be a strong competitor in the 50 yard hurdles, while Isaac Nyarko and Deryck Tuttle made strong contributions in the 50 yard dash. Kevin Burke also made an impact for the Hawks in the high jump. The team will sorely miss the graduating seniors of 1996, but with the renewed interest in track, they wil be strong competitors for years to come.

running to win

Led by senior quad-captains Rhonda Surrette, Julie Aucoin, Laura Mirabito and Katie LeClair, the 1995-96 girls' Indoor Track Team had its most successful season in the last eight years. The team went 6-2 and finished third in the G.B.L. They then proceeded to finish fifth at the State Class A meet by scoring 24 points, the team's highest total since 1988. Senior Maribeth Boudreau, in her first season throwing, was the Class A shot put champion, while LeClair came in second in the mile. Other outstanding performances were made by sophomore Jill Barnes, who took fourth in the 1000, and the 2 mile relay team which came in second at the Class A meet. These efforts qualified them for the All-State meet, in which LeClair came in third. The distance medley team of Barnes, Surrette, LeClair, and sophomore Caitlin Nichols also had a strong showing at Nationals.

Boudreau, LeClair and Barnes were named G.B.L. All-Stars for their victories at the league meet. The team was unable to beat Somerville and Peabody, but it had an incredible year nonetheless. With a number of outstanding underclassmen returning, they will be a force to contend with and will continue the track dynasty at Waltham High School.

baseball diamonds

After a slow start, the 1996 Waltham High School baseball team was able to turn itself around and nearly qualified for the state tournament. Half way through the season, the Hawks were a disappointing 3-7, but they were able to pull together for the second half of the season at 6-4. The final season record was 9-11, just short of the tournament.

The most memorable win came against a powerful Arlington team. Arlington was one of the best teams in Eastern Massachusetts, but Waltham beat them 7-4. That game put the Hawks in the driver's seat for a tournament bid with three games left. It was the game the Hawks showed the most emotion and teamwork. It was their character that won the game.

The seniors were a large part of the team. The contributions of Mark Gogan, David Savoy, Kevin Burke, Steve Connaughton, Andrew Gullotti, Derek Foley, Eric Gollinger, and Louis Colon will be sorely missed.

For the first time in four years the 1996 girls' Softball team made it to the second round in the state tournament. The Hawks dominated the preliminary round before falling to a powerful Woburn team. Another highlight of the season was a dramatic victory over Medford that snapped the Mustangs' winning streak. The Hawks finished the season with a 12W-8L record.

The girls were coached by Joe Salvo, and co-captains Paphay Chouangpraseuth and Maribeth Boudreau provided solid leadership and strong play. Seniors Jill Casella and Katie Cloherty were also vital to the team's success. Kristen Mahoney and Jessica Magazu were a valuable part of team as well. This year, an outstanding performance was turned in by sophomore pitcher Colleen McCarthy. Junior Noel Cunningham gave the team an offensive spark. If the dedication and spirit of the Hawks' continues, next year's team is sure to be just as successful.

The 1996 Lacrosse team met Coach Duffy's expectations by qualifying for the state tournament for the second straight year with a final record of 9-8. This year's team played a tough schedule, opposing some of the best teams in the state. The Hawks proved they were a tournament team, when defeating a powerful BC High club. That win was the highlight of the year for the players and coaches.

The team was led by tri-captains Bobby Lyons, Tim Mahoney, and Eddie Villofane. Other key contributions to the Hawks' success were seniors Bobby Dalton, Bill Foster, and Eric Lobo. Juniors C.J. Frost, Rich Morovitz, Gianleo Duca, Juan Mejia, and sophomores Jim Ruggeri, Gino Lavini and Jim Vittum. The Hawks played as a team all year carrying on a winning tradition.

perfect form

After missing the state tournament last year by one match, the boys' Tennis team set their goal this year for making the tournament. Led by senior tri-captains Jon Capan, Pat Deveau, and junior tri-captain Mark Deveau, it appeared they were on track to acheive their goal by beating Revere 5-0 in the opening match. However, the Hawks lost three out of the next four matches. They were only able to muster up three more wins for the season. Their final record was 5-11.

Leading the Hawks with the most wins was senior Pat Deveau who was 11-5 for the season and posted shutouts against Arlington Catholic, Malden, and Medford. Also having a good record for the Hawks was the freshman duo of Charlie Arsenault and Tom Gage who were 9-7 for the season. Other members of the team include junior John Karadosian, senior Chris Stolowski, sophomores Alex Fava, Jim Clark, and Doug Luther, and freshman Alex Chau. Losing three valuable seniors, the Hawks are hoping to rebuild and hopefully make the post-season next year.

This year's very successful girls' Tennis team was led by tri-captains Katie Stanton, Oubonrath Nithnalay, and Meredith Cronin. Coached by Jay Levine, the team coasted to a 14-2 regular season record in addition to making an appearance in the state tournament. The highlight of the season came when the girls pulled together to win an exciting match over their archrival, Arlington. Arlington had been undefeated against the Hawks for a number of years.

Seniors Katie Stanton and Oubonrath Nithnalay provided a spark at first doubles, while the first singles spot was held by sophomore Jana Dolnikova. The second and third singles spots of Lalanya Twitchell and Chantell Marsoubian dominated the league. The second doubles team of Meredith Cronin and Maria Antarassian were solid scorers for the Hawks as well. Senior Pradnya Oak was also a factor in the success of the team. Although the team is graduating some talented seniors, the strong group of underclassmen left will be sure to lead the team to more success in the future.

Strung to achieve

The boys' Track team once again had a strong season finishing third place in the Greater Boston League. The hawks had many outstanding individual performances this year, but many times it was the team effort that secured the win, The Hawks' were coached by Mr. Keohane, Mr. Glynn, and Mr. Galvin, The team finished the season with an impressive 7-1 season record. Senior captain Royston English dominated the sprinting and long jump, while classmate Joe Mazzola controlled the hurdles. Senior Scott Rogers raced the two mile for the Hawks, while Mike Bartley competed in the 400. In the field events, Will Schoeck seemed to have a monopoly on first place in the shot put, also adding his expertise in the discus to the efforts of senior Hoe Silva, Khalil Sater and Denis Valevich. Seniors Mike Bartley, Joe Connolly, Joe Mazzola, and Dan Caterino also leapt their way to victory many times in a variety of events including the long jump, triple jump, and high jump.

Track continues to be of growing interest, and especially with the experience underclassmen are gaining from the Waltham Track Club, the Hawks' tradition of pride and excellence will be sure to carry on.

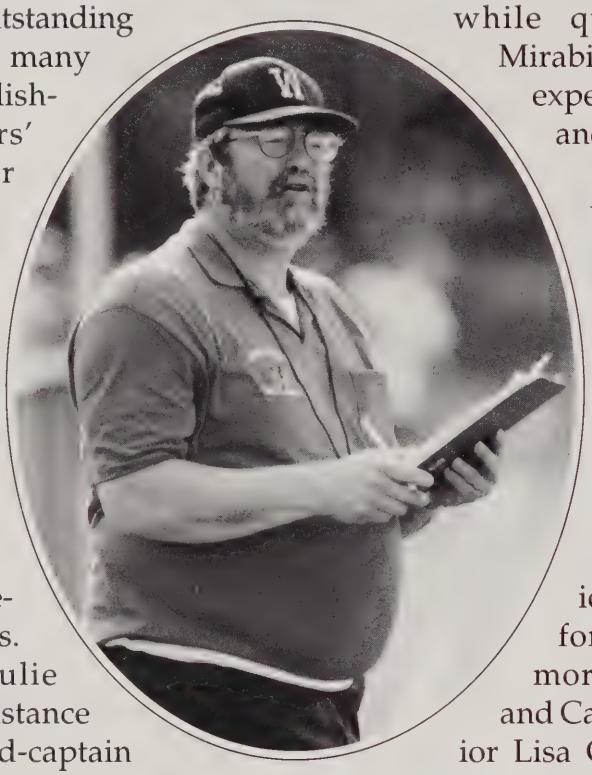
girls' outrun wild

by Laura Mirabito

While the 1996 girls' Track team cannot be said to have had an outstanding season, there were many individual accomplishments. This years' team was smaller than in years past, but was still able to claim a fifth place finish at the Greater Boston League meet. Coaches Kent Hales and Jack Dempsey provided the necessary guidance and encouragement for this success.



Quad-captain Julie Aucoin was the distance specialist. With quad-captain Katie LeClair out for the season with a stress fracture, her efforts in the mile and the two mile were a major factor in most meets. Quad-captain Rhonda Surrette dominated in the 400 meters, while quad-captain Laura Mirabito demonstrated her expertise in the shot put and discus.

Other contributions were made by seniors Julie Mullin and Sarah Dacey in the jumping events, senior Katie Ryan in the discus, and seniors Alyson LaFreniere and Nicole Pavone in the shot put. Many juniors also earned points for the team. Sophomores Michelle Bernier and Caitlin Nichols, and junior Lisa Connors were instrumental in the team's success.

Many talented underclassmen coming up will insure the success of next year's girls' Track team. Best of luck!

Expression

1996 saw the music program at Waltham High School continue its tradition of excellence and talent. Many groups earned medals at various competitions, and band and orchestra groups also won many awards.

Music Odyssey, the all freshman show choir, was in its second year, yet the twenty participants were awarded a gold medal at the Eastern Mass Show Choir Competition. Music Express is an all womans show choir. It has always been a jewel in the music department. The forty women, singing in three part harmony perform wonderful dance steps. This year they had their own show, Express Yourself, in which they performed skits and solos. They were awarded silver medals at both the Windsor Locks Festival and the Eastern Mass Show Choir Competition.

Music Unlimited, a coed group, was also very successful this year. This group has performed throughout the community and the world. This year Music Unlimited took us back to the 50's, 60's, and 70's. The had the audience on their feet singing, especially when there was a guest appearance by Sonny and Cher. This choir won a gold medal, Best Vocals, and Best Choreography in the Windsor Locks, Festival and a gold medal in New Jersey.

Along instrumental lines, the Jazz Band and Orchestra performed many times with great success. The Marching Band, led by drum majors Esina Belliveau and Kristin Whalen, were prominent at all varsity football games. The Wind Ensemble, Waltham High's concert band which has received countless awards for excellence,performed The perform many concerts throughout the year,highlighting the Student Santa Assembly and graduation.

National Honor Society Induction Ceremony

EVENT: N.H.S. INDUCTION

Date: Thursday, October 12, 1995

Place: Robinson Auditorium

Time: 7:30pm

"Character is the spirit and motivating force behind all our actions. It is tha which makes us unique in the expression of our talents. It is the combinati of qualities that distinguishes one person from another. It is that special tra that marks us as members of the National Honor Society.

Expression of character is revealed in many different ways. It is present o the playing field in our team work and enthusiasm to win. It is manifest through our art, music, writing, and dancing. It is an integral part of the wa we approach our academic studies and our interaction with students and teachers in the classroom. It is ever-present in our dealings with co-worke at work. It prompts us to master a new dance step, to solve a difficult mat problem, or to read a challenging novel. It is shaped and influenced by many people including our parents and family, our teachers, and our friend It motivates us to accept challenges and face new situations.

In short, character is what we are. And for a National Honor Society member, character is one of the major criteria for membership. Perhaps th importance of character is best expressed in this short verse:

When wealth is lost, nothing is lost,
When health is lost, something is lost,
When character is lost, all is lost."

-Sarah Dace
Secretar

"...I believe that there are three essential qualities of a leader. The first is responsibility, a commitment to a purpose or mission, a dedication to gain the trust of others and lead them in the process of completing a task. The second quality is ambition, a drive to identify a goal and to strive to make it a reality, not only for personal satisfaction, but for the benefit of others as well. The third quality is pride, a passionate desire to do one's best in every undertaking."

- Katie Ryan, President

"For a member of the National Honor Society, service means connecting with one another. It means volunteering time, energy, and talents for the benefit of other students and members of the community. It is a willingness to pitch in and lend a hand when there is need. Service comes from the heart and reflects a spirit of caring and concern. To paraphrase Walt Whitman, when we give service we give ourselves."

-Julie Mullin
Vice President

"One of the foremost standards for election to membership in the National Honor Society is scholarship. I believe scholarship to be the ability to excel in every aspect of one's education, and the desire to go above and beyond what is expected. The desire to learn is essential because education must be a life-long process and not merely a temporary phase in our high school career. It is of utmost importance to continually improve oneself, and to constantly expand one's knowledge. This idea of scholarship is exemplified by every member of the National Honor Society. The Honor Society is composed of people who have this desire to learn and have shown it through their accomplishments... These students have taken their first steps towards laying the foundation for a successful life. They have done outstandingly well in their first stage of eduwcation and are ready to continue that pace in the future. I am honored to be a member of the National Honor Society and I would like to congratulate all of my peers for their wonderful academic achievements."

DECATHALON
Date:
March 1996
Place:
Wellesley
Time: 3:00 PM

The 1995-1996 Academic Decathalon, or "Nerd-a-thon" to its members, had one of its most outstanding seasons to date. Led by co-captains, Mike Bartley and Phil Saulnier, and coached by Mr. Viens, the 9 member competing team placed 6th out of 16 in the state level competion, after a 4th place finish in the regionals. Three students competed in each scoring category: "A," "B," or "C" students, as decided by GPA. Mike Bartley and Gaurav Tuli were each "A" students, and had scores to prove it. Mostly, Fabio Mariano, John Umina, and Ed Fragale were our "B" students, and their solid scores provided the team with bulk of its points. Phil Saulnier and Chris Stolowski, each competing as "C" students, earned many medals for the team. (Medals in the "C" category...wonder why...) Jorge Argandona and Pradnya Oak were alternates.

For a team which has never placed below 10th in the state level competion, this year's effort was commendable. Bartley's near perfect Economics score, Umina's gold medal winning speech about rebuilding a car, Phil's 5 medals in various fields, and many other highlights came from months of practice. Mr. Viens did an excellent job, and the many other teachers and specialists who assisted us helped our efforts tremendously. Non-senior participants were: Pooja Agrawal, janine Mazzerelli, Greg Sirokman, Ted "shut-UP Ted!" Hallock, Steve Gage, John Karakashian, Andre Quina, Liz Bartley, and Tom Gage.

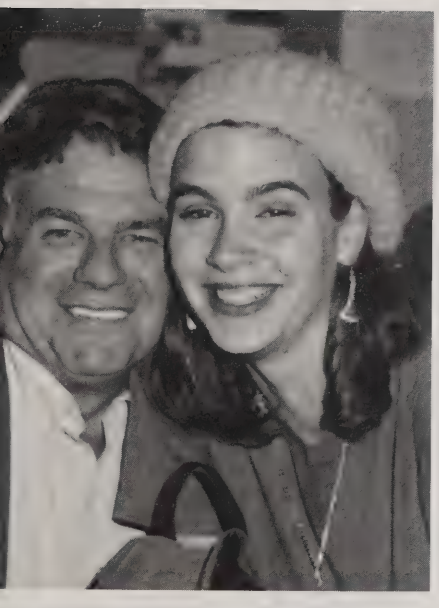
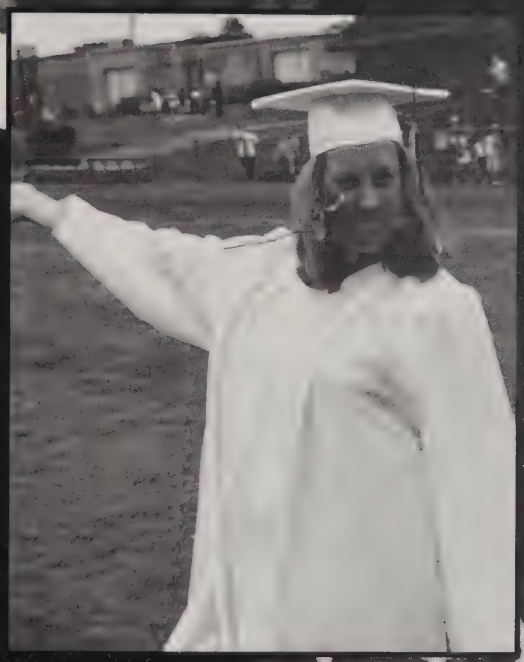
WALTHAM



THE FINAL DAYS

of the Class 1996.....



"Sands of Time"

As the sands of time all come together, we the class of '96 have gathered. Some started from different paths; some started with different ideas but as we started we will end, as before and all together. We have grown, loved, and hated. Things we knew before will change, as all things do. That this is not an end but a beginning will not be forgotten; we have trickled through our time at W.H.S. and things in our past. Now is time for a little more space, a little more freedom. Now we are adults, and the choice is ours. This is not an end but a beginning. The sand has come together, but each grain is individual. Now we look with a more intellectual eye. We see, but memories will never cease.

The 1996 yearbook owes its success to the hard work and talent of many seniors. From getting ads to support the yearbook to creating layout pages and writing stories, many had a hand in completing the yearbook. These seniors gave up their free time, in addition to coming in over the summer, but the end result was well worth it.

The staff would also like to thank the yearbook advisor, Mr. Grant, for all his hard work in putting the book together and getting things moving. Best of luck to the crew of the '97 yearbook!

Business of Waltham.....

The 1996 Mirror was made possible by the support of local business, family, and friends. Each year, seniors at Waltham High work during the school year and summer to get ads. These ads provide the money needed to publish our yearbook. In turn, businesses as well as family and friends get to wish the class of 96 "good luck."

The class of '96 would like to give thanks to those who have helped as we bid a fond farewell to Waltham High.

Thanks For All Your Support

May the good Lord be with you down every road you roam
And may sunshine and happiness surround you when you're far from home.
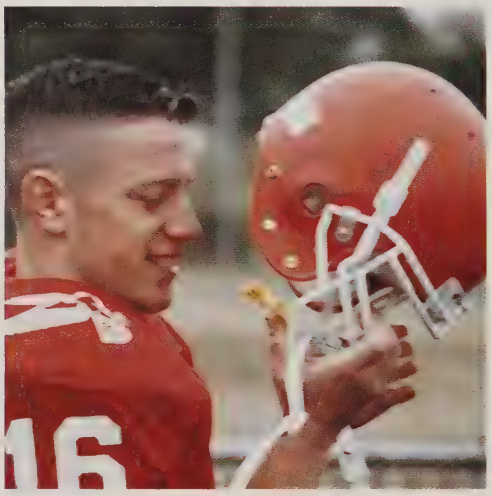
And may you grow to be proud, dignified and true
And do unto others as you'd have done to you.
Be courageous and be brave
And in my heart you'll always stay
Forever Young, Forever Young, Forever Young.

Forever Young,



May good fortune be with you
May your guiding light be strong
Build a stairway to heaven
Whether a prince or a vagabond.
And may you never love in vain
And in my heart you will remain
Forever Young, Forever Young, Forever Young.

And when you finally fly away,
I'll be hoping that I served you well
For all the wisdom of a lifetime
No one can ever tell.
But whatever road you choose,
I'm right behind you win or lose
Forever Young, Forever Young, Forever Young.
